For General Table Use

There is nothing better than our regular home-made bread, which has a pleasing body and stamina to it that builds up flesh and muscle, and gives the thin fat and healthy. We are scrupulously careful in the selection of our flour and other ingredients, have a splendid method of baking which ensures the best results, and we bake the best bread for working people.

 J. C. Watts of Reuben, is in the county seat this week acting in the capacity of court bailiff. Mr. Watts is one of Columbia county's oldest residents, his father coming to the county in the year 1852. For twenty odd years Mr. Watts served the county in official capacities, and is well and favorably known from border to border.
 Mrs. K. W. Goodale, who has been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Ross, was called to Des Moines, Iowa, late Thursday evening a week ago receiving a telegram that her two sisters were in the hospital there and no hopes were held for their recovery. Her little daughter, Jane, is at the home of Mrs. Ross until the mother returns.
 Alex. Krokersti, a former employe of the St. Helens Lumber company, made more or less trouble for the officers Friday and Saturday of last week, in that he imagined he should be given employment by the company and proceeded to drive the present holder of his former position out of the building with a club. The officers were called and placed him in the county jail. After an examination by physicians he was adjudged mentally unbalanced. The officers turned Krokersti over to relatives Wednesday with the understanding that they were to get him out of the county, which they immediately did.
 Late Monday evening about 8 o'clock, an auto belonging to the Independent Auto company, collided with a buggy occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Karth of Yankton. The accident happened in front of the Pure Food Bakery, the car striking the front wheel of the buggy, jerking the horse loose, and throwing both Mr. and Mrs. Karth to the earth, the latter sustaining several bruises from the fall. The buggy was badly demolished and the axle of the car bent. Mr. Stevens, manager of the Independent Auto company, as soon as he was notified of the accident, immediately took Mr. and Mrs. Karth to their home in his car.
